Public Internet Conditions of Use

- TO AVOID LOSING YOUR WORK, please save to removable media or your email account before your session is finished. All data saved to these computers is automatically & permanently DELETED at the end of each 30 minute session. Memory sticks can be purchased at the Help Desk.

- Customers are expected to know how to use the PC and staff will provide only minimal assistance. Special training programmes are available, please check at the Help Desk for times and content.

- Children's use of the Internet should be monitored by parents or caregivers.

- The Library reserves the right to make some APNK computers unavailable at times for specific purposes, such as training or community group use.

- The Library does not accept any responsibility for what users choose to access on the Internet or for the contents of any users' communications. Sending material across the Internet that is threatening, libellous, obscene, harassing, or offensive, or which infringes third party intellectual property rights arising or any crime facilitated by these actions, is unacceptable in the Library. Anyone caught accessing objectionable material could be trespassed from the Library.

- The library does not take responsibility for the safety of personal belongings of customers

- The Library does not accept any liability for the accuracy of information obtained from the Internet.

- All library customers are expected to be respectful of other users. Library staff reserve the right to ask any customer to leave if they deem their behaviour to be disruptive and/or unacceptable.

Thank you for your cooperation

ROTORUA LIBRARY
TE AKA MAURI